FERNHILL ~~PALACE~~, OOTACAMUND.

My dear Mrs Mirza

I hoped to have had a letter that with you before you left - Her H. is charmed with the "caskets" I told her I thought you had them specially made - Her H. ordered thro Sister Ignatius a painting of Maharaja exactly like the one you saw of His H. on the

I rather like the Gaekwar but I dont care much for Her H. I think she is very deep - the Holkar lady has nothing in her:

Get His H. to come up soon - the weather is lovely -

With her kindest regards

Yrs very sincerely easel. I have an idea Barton wrote to Lisle T. that the picture was ready & packed, until you write & get the parcel to Mysore & bring up with you. I know Her H. wants to put the painting on the easel on Uvarajas Birthday - My daughter received such a touching telegram from Your wife. We try & be bright here - but my heart aches when I see my poor child so wretched. I had good news of our son this mail. I will send you his letters to read when you come up. Uvaraja is enjoying his Bombay friends - but says he has no time for work & the Baroda boy takes up much of his time

My dear Minga

"Piano" sold but the transport difficult.
Could you arrange for Sister Ignatius to have a trolley I am responsible until it is safe in the purchasers hands.

You know how I have been let down to like a dear friend helps me — I found your wife looking awfully well a bit thin – but I think she is much better & has promised to eat more. her appetite must be coaxed she tires of the same dishes – I have asked Mrs B. here [illegible] I fear she is very [illegible].

The Convent hours they had in a small child – Sister Ignatius a nice Irish woman much amused at Bishop's [illegible] & the [illegible] [illegible] Thank you very much [illegible] change. [illegible]
